1. Introduction

1.1 This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement relates to actions and activities during the financial year 1 January 2020 to 31 December 2020.

1.2 The statement sets down Gleeds commitment to preventing slavery and human trafficking in our business activities and the steps we have put in place with the aim of ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our own business and supply chains. We all have a duty to be alert to risks, however small. Staff are expected to report their concerns and management to act upon them.

2. Organisational structure and supply chains

2.1 Gleeds is an independent multi-disciplinary consultancy providing construction- and property-related consultancy services to customers operating in both the public and private sectors.

2.2 This statement covers the business activities of Gleeds which are as follows:

- Programme and Project Management Services.
- Commercial and Contract Management Services.
- Asset Management Services.
- Advisory Services.

2.3 Gleeds operates through several companies each under the direction of a Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and an Executive Management Board. The CEO, along with other Directors responsible for corporate functions and those from the Executive Management Board, and the Senior Leadership Teams, form the Gleeds Executive Management Team.
2.4 The Executive Management Board has ultimate responsibility for and sets human rights policy, including that relating to modern slavery and human trafficking, which sits within the Gleeds Management System.

2.5 Gleeds’ relationship with its suppliers is an important component in achieving high performance in business. In selecting suppliers, Gleeds works hard to choose reputable suppliers who are committed to ethical standards and practices compatible with those of Gleeds.

2.6 Types of suppliers that we trade with include architects, civil engineers, structural engineers, building services engineers and other specialist consultants providing construction and/or property related services to supplement those provided by Gleeds to e to provide an all-in service to customers. We also engage suppliers for the provision of products and services, such as stationary, IT equipment providers, software providers, cloud-service providers, cleaners, legal advisers, copywriters, personal protection equipment, maintenance engineers, and document storage/archiving service providers. In addition, we occasionally engage temporary workers via recruitment agencies.

2.5 Before engaging suppliers, they are required to complete a pre-qualification questionnaire detailing competence, capability, and compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements.

2.6 From a risk management perspective, we have identified areas we need to develop in conjunction with our supply chain, and a risk-based approach is under development. This approach is to include identifying and reviewing suppliers that fall within industries and/or countries that can carry a higher risk, including in respect of modern slavery and human trafficking. Gleeds is developing an enhanced supplier take-on review and ongoing monitoring process, which will be handled by the Compliance Team.

5.1 We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our business or our supply chains. This Statement affirms its intention to act ethically in our business relationships.

(8) Wellbeing Policy.

7. Due diligence processes for slavery and human trafficking

7.1 Gleeds undertakes appropriate due diligence when considering taking on new suppliers, and regularly reviews its existing suppliers. Gleeds’ due diligence process includes:

(1) The use of a self-assessment questionnaire used to collect data on human trafficking and modern slavery-related risks, to assess and mitigate risk, and to ensure suppliers are complying with human trafficking and modern slavery related legislation; and

8. Performance indicators

8.1 We have designed the following key performance indicators (KPIs) to measure how effective we are in ensuring slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in any part of our business or supply chains including:

9. Incidences of modern slavery

No incidences of modern slavery have been recorded or uncovered within Gleeds or its supply chain in the past 12 months.

10. Looking forward

We recognise the extremely complex nature of modern slavery and will continue to monitor our operational practices, and have identified the following key actions for 2021:

1. Complete the MSAT (Modern Slavery Assessment Tool) assessment as part of our learning process; and use the results to inform a Modern Slavery Improvement Plan, which we will follow in order to put in place effective risk mitigation and to better address modern slavery in our supply chains.

2. Implement KPIs to regularly measure the performance of our suppliers.

3. Conduct regular supplier audits which have a degree of focus on slavery and human trafficking and where general risks are identified.

4. Review the mapping of our supply chain to assess product, service and or geographical of modern slavery and human trafficking risks;

5. Evaluate the modern slavery and human trafficking risks of each new supplier;

6. Review on a regular basis all aspects of our supply chain based on the supply chain mapping; and

7. Ensure completion of our Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Due Diligence Questionnaire by both existing and new suppliers. Suppliers will be required to complete the Questionnaire every three (3) years).

11. Approval

This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement will be regularly reviewed and updated, as necessary. The Executive Management Board endorses this statement and is fully committed to its implementation.
